

THE ABSTRACT ART OF A POET

VINCENT TAYLOR

DESCRIPTION:

This publication features 13 abstract illustrations and 36 poems that speak primarily on self-assessment, societal issues and family. It is sure to evoke emotions that will make individuals smile while at the same time shed a tear.

This poetry book provides teachers with a resource that will assist them with addressing multiple standards in the Florida and Common Core Standards.

NUMBER OF PAGES:

63 pages; Appropriate for 4th grade and higher

OTHER TITLES:

Cornbread; I'm Not Supposed to be Here; What I See in My Class; You Didn't See Me But I know Everything You Did; The Mother I Adore; Tainted Words; The Last Straw

